

THE EVENING BULLETIN

ROSS & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors
TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

WEDNESDAY, JULY 8, 1885.

WHAT a pleasant thing
It would be, supposing,
Our early blossoms—
To early blossoms—
The head of the shop
Would be in a fix,
Talk to the wife
And play with the chicks.

Some of the merchants report their July collections much better than they expected.

Mr. J. Woon Poots will preach at the M. E. Church, South, next Sunday evening at the usual hour.

Mrs. T. J. Nolin the well known caterer, will have charge of the dining hall at High Bridge Camp meeting this year.

The officers and members of Star Lodge No. 1,943, G. U. O. O. F., are requested to meet at their hall on Friday night, July 10th. A. B. Jones, N. G.

The firm of Childs, Robinson & Co., cigar manufacturers, has been dissolved by the withdrawal of Mr. George W. Childs. The business will be continued by Mr. Robinson at the old stand under the firm name of Robinson & Co.

MASTER FRANC LEACH, son of Mr. C. S. Leach, fell from a pear tree, yesterday, at the residence of Mr. Charles B. Pearce, a height of about fifteen feet, and was severely bruised. He is getting along very well to-day, under the care of Dr. Shackleford.

A fatal affray occurred at Ewing Station on Saturday evening between a man named Coglan and another of the name of Reynolds. Reynolds was cut in the leg and an artery severed, causing death in a few minutes. Coglan at one time lived in this city and was employed at the factory of the James H. Hall Plow Company.

"It Was Very Disagreeable."

That is what the hinder said on returning from a night spent in storm and darkness amid the growls of bears, the howls of wolves and the expected approach of serpents. The combination of horrors known as dyspepsia leaves more disagreeable than all this. Get rid of it by taking Brown's Iron Bitters, as Mr. J. E. Gilky, of Hamilton, Texas, did. He says, "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia and am greatly benefited."

O. Zapp Dreamed of Sudden Wealth, Orson Zapp, of Round Top, Fayette County, Texas, is night Constable there. In discharge of his duty there he collared one-fifth of ticket number 21,258 in the May drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, and dreamed he won the capital prize, and he received for his one dollar one-fifth of the first capital prize of $75,000. Truly it is often better to receive than not to give. Every ticket does not draw, but for any information apply to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.—[New Orleans (La.) Picayune, May 23.]

The largest audience probably, that has ever assembled at the opera house, was present last night to witness the beautiful ceremonies of installing in their respective positions the newly elected officers of DeKalb Lodge, No. 12, I. O. O. F., of this city. Although the attendance was so large, the most respectful attention was given to the ceremonies, and the deepest interest manifested, a compliment which was greatly appreciated by the brethren of the order. The vocal music was an especially pleasing feature of the entertainment and the address by Hon. W. H. Holt, Past Grand Master of Kentucky, was an eloquent and entertaining effort. The programme which is as follows was given in full.

PROGRAMME

Chariste—The Shepherd's Pipe—Geo. F. Quincy—Mr. G. S. Judd—Miss Anna Smoot—J. F. Johnson—G. S. Judd—Prayer—Rev. Dr. J. A. Henderson—Song—Hail!—I Await—Love—Frank Howard—Song—Miss Lida Wheeler.

INSTALLATION.

Add Long Sane.

Come in as friends, make no note,
And half the church hand.
Who, in compliance with our vote,
Our Noble and Wise Grand will now
Assume the honor now,
To seal their boughs,
Of Friendship, Truth and Love.

Hail all our officers elect,
Of high and low degree,
Whose names we hold in kind respect,
Whatever his station be;
We place him in the seat of seal,
And stamp their actions with the seal.

Vocal Solo—Ah, With What Ecstasy—Stratford—Mrs. E. Stanley Lee—Master of Ceremonies—Mr. J. S. Judd and Miss Lida P. Smoot—Song—H. C. Weston—By Rev. George S. Weston, Miss Lida Berry—Accompanist.

INSTALLING OFFICERS

D. G. M.—Captain Jacob Miller.
D. G. M.—John C. D. J.
Grand Marshal—J. M. Coochau.
Grand Secretary—A. M. Coochau.
Grand Treasurer—John R. Coochau.
Grand Guardian—John Heiser.

EXECUTIVE OFFICES INSTALLED.
Vice Grand—W. W. Rogers.
Secretary—John W. Thompson.
Treasurer—John Coochau.
Sitting Past Grand—L. S. Lalle.

Chesler Council Proceedings.

The Board of Trustees met on the 3rd instant, with G. W. Holliday as chairman, the proceedings were approved as read.

Marshal reported taxes collected.....$27 00
Treasurer reported fines assessed.....4 00
Treasurer reported receipts from all sources.....27 00
Treasurer reported expenditures.....17 12
Bills allowed.....12 50

The committee on nuisances reported progress.

The petition of Samuel Monday, laid over until next meeting.

W. H. Rider, E. H. Eshom, G. W. Holliday were appointed as the committee to examine discrepancies between the Marshal's and Treasurer's reports.

A complaint was made by Mr. Fristoe that the town was not polled well enough, whereupon Mr. Rider suggested that if we could find some one to serve without pay it would be advisable to elect a Deputy Marshal.

Upon motion to nominate a Deputy Marshal the vote stood.

Ayes, Holliday, Fristoe, Eshom, Rider, Niles, Lee.

Mr. Boughner, was nominated. The ballot resulted as follows; Boughner, 4; Blank, 1.

The chairman declared Boughner elected Deputy Marshal.

C. Boughner, producing a bond, it was referred to the committee on bonds, who approved and submitted the same to the council for action.

The council approved Mr. Boughner's bond.

Reference was made to the improvement of Prospect street and after discussion the committee on internal improvement was instructed to examine and report thereon at next meeting.

G. W. Holiday, Chairman, Pro Tem.
FREDERICK WILLIAMS, Town Clerk.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Elias R. Hord is in the city visiting his relatives.

Mr. J. B. Fristoe, of Pleasant Valley, Nicholas County, is in the city to-day.

Fred. Josiah Wilson and Misses Julia Porter and Ella Wallace returned from Lexington on Tuesday.

Messrs. Milton Cooper, John Zech and John B. Poynz, Jr., left for Escalpia Springs on Tuesday.

Miss Little Throop, of Liberty, Ky., and Mrs. James W. Pierce, of Fern Bank, near Cincinnati, are visiting the family of Judge R. H. Stanton.

A DESPATCH to the Courier-Journal says that Mrs. Vina Martin was arrested at Morehead on a warrant charging her with selling poisoned food to the Cottage Hotel, where Craig Tolliver is held under guard, the alleged intention being the poisoning of Tolliver. The State militia is still standing guard and everything is orderly in the county.

COUNTY POINTS.

Sardis.

Jacob Sardis has just finished a splendid line of painting in the hall at the home of Thomas B. Arthur.

Mr. Alken spent last week at her old home, and she is now back again ready to talk and walk nicely and is very cheery in little ways.

Miss Nannie Brooking, the belle of Murphysboro, spent last week at "Payson's," on Main Street, and is now back again ready to create a silver lining to the darkest cloud.

We require a greater expert than the artist who had the better garden, Dr. Brown or Mr. Thomas B. Arthur. They are both good artists.

Mr. Alfred Knight was buried in our cemetery on the 1st inst. He was known as the "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

The Methodist Episcopal Church, of this place, has lately been greatly beautified by the patent planter window decoration, and the work of Mr. T. Garrett is the work artistically.

Miss Alice Ballou, of Calais, Vt., a young lady friend of the young gentlemen they have missed, and we don't intend to tell all.

Miss Carrie R. Dye made Delta Valley headquarters last week, visiting while there new friends Miss Allie Chancor, Luise Dye. Her quiet and gentle manners and her smile will always be very pleasant memories to all who knew her.

Bugle's Camp Meeting will be the drawing card on Aug. 10th. Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Donohue and their two daughters, Misses Edie and Jessie, are advanced in years, but are still young and worthy of all the congratulations that her friends are showering upon her. Her parlor is a picture, with oil and water colors from her own easel, and her center table garnished with flowers from her new made Lancashire friends.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When he came to this place and found it lighted and crowded with a refined and educated audience, he was greatly pleased. The eloquence of Elder T. E. Myers, of Jeffersonville, and the singing of the choir, were quite, gentle and differential in manner, as a public speaker he grasps a subject with great interest and knowledge, and in his delivery from him followed him right after right, allured by the charm of his words and the clearness of his enunciation. The audience gathered from actual life. Elder Morrison was the author of the sermon, with the spirit and power of the Word.

Elder Willie Hall was invited to a regular service at the First Baptist Church last evening. When

PREFATORY REMARKS.

THE PROLOGUE OF THE PLAY OF A LIFE OF DESTINY.

"I Wrote for the Money it Gave Me, for at That Time I was Living on Borrowed Money"—Grant's Remarks in His Memoirs—Brief and True.

New York, July 8.—The preface to Grant's forthcoming book, will be as follows:

"Man proposes and God disposes. There are but few important events in the affairs of men brought by their own choice. Although frequently urged by friends to write my memoirs, I had determined never to do so, nor to write anything for publication. At the age of nearly seventy, I received an injury in a fall which confined me closely to the house, while it did not apparently effect my general health. Shortly after the rascality of a business partner developed itself by the announcement of a failure. This was followed soon after by universal depression of all securities, which seemed to threaten the extinction of a good part of the income still retained and for which I am indebted to the benevolence of friends."

"At the junction of the two wars the Century Magazine asked me to write a few articles for them. I consented for the money it gave me, for at that moment I was living upon borrowed money. The work I found congenial, and determined to continue it. The event is an important one for me, for good or evil. I hope for the former."

"In preparing these volumes for the public I have entered upon the task with the sincere desire to do justice to every one, whether on the National or Confederates side, other than the unavoidable injustice of not making mention often where special mention is due. There must be many errors of omission in the work, because the subject is too large to be treated of in two volumes in such a way as to do justice to all the officers and men engaged."

"There were thousands of instances during the course of the war of individual acts of magnanimity and heroic deeds of heroism which deserve special mention and are not here alluded to. The troops engaged in them will have to look to the detailed reports of their individual commanders for the full history of those deeds."

"The first volume, as well as a portion of the second, was written long before I had reason to suppose I was in a critical condition with it. Later on, it was reduced to a point of safety, and it became impossible for me to attend to anything for weeks. I have, however, regained some of my strength, and am able often to devote as many hours a day as a person should devote to his work."

"I would have more hope of satisfying the expectations of the public if I could have allowed myself more time. I have used my best efforts with that of my editor son, T. D. Grant, and by his help, to verify from the records every statement of fact given. The comments are my own, and show how I saw the matters treated of whether others saw them in the same light or not."

"With these remarks I present these volumes to the public, asking no favors, but hoping they will meet the approval of the reader."

"Mr. McGregor, N. Y.

"July 1, 1883."

THE KANSAS FLOOD.

Portions of the State Completely Washed Out by Raging Torrents.

PARSONS, Kan., July 8.—Reports from all points indicate the damage by floods very great. The Missouri river has overflowed its banks, and has ever been before. Many farmers who had their wheat cut and in the shock report almost a total loss, while others have lost hogs, sheep and cattle, and in many instances houses and fences have been swept away, the families barely escaping with their lives.

The loss of life has been greater than usual. No attempt has been made by the railroads to get the trains through instant. Communication is entirely cut off with the east and no mail has been received except from the south since Wednesday. The Missouri Pacific railroad advertised to run a train east and transfer by boat at Ozone Mission. It will be two or three days before travel is resumed.

MRS. GOULD'S LAST PURCHASE.

Buying Up Big Mining Interests and Controlling the Coal Trade.

DALLAS, Tex., July 8.—Jay Gould bought off Robert C. Schenck, the builder of the Texas & Pacific railroad, all his mining interests in the Indian territory, including the McAllister mine, from which the coal supply of Texas is mainly derived. It is thought that he will then control fuel so as another opportunity to increase his wealth.

He also bought Gold, Colorado & Santa Fe, owning by Galveston merchants for the control of which he has been making successive efforts.

The railroad filed in the clerk's office for registration a mortgage to the Farmers' Loan and Trust company of New York for $2,144,000 designed to be used in its extension. Its ultimate northern terminus are to be Denver and Kansas City.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Ned Rogler Kills His Sweetheart and Himself.

ARCADIA, Wis., July 8.—Ned Rogler shot Annie Forsch, a girl of fifteen years, who had been paying attention, and afterwards committed suicide.

The girl's parents strongly objected to Rogler as a suitor. The latter finding there was no hope of marrying the girl, delibera-ally proposed to take her life, and his own. Meeting her in the street, he struck her without a word. He then coolly picked up the body of his victim, and with the life blood oozing from a bullet hole in the left breast, carried it to the parsonage. He then took a dozen of shotgun shells and loaded the pistol had had time to take effect shot himself through the temple, dying almost instantly. The parents of the girl are nearly insane from grief.

Bicyclists' Tour.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 8.—The Big Four bicyclists started from Buffalo on Monday and seven days, started from Buffalo on Monday and seven days. The organization is composed of wheelmen of New York, Boston, Chicago and Buffalo. Their destination is New York, which will be reached on July 17, via Canada.

Price Baking Powder Co.,
Chicago, Ill.
MAKERS OF
Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
Best Baking Powder
FOR SALE BY GROCERIES.
WE MAKE BUT ONE QUALITY.

Dr. Price's Lupulin Yeast Gems,
Best Dry Yeast
FOR SALE BY GROCERIES.

We make but one quality.

MALARIA
Enters the system from unknown causes, at all seasons.
Shatters the Nerves, Impairs Digestion, and affects the Muscles.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
The Royal Quality
Purity
NOT QUANTITY
On Every Bottle
Trade Mark
THE BEST TONIC
Quickly and completely cures Malaria and Chills and Fevers, and relieves Lack of Energy. It purifies the system, and stimulates the appetite, and removes the languor of old age. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or affect the eyes. Father T. J. REILLY, the parrot and scholar of the world, has recommended Brown's Iron Bitters to all his patients, and has used them with great success. Dr. J. H. BROWN, the author of "Outlines of Health and like Diseases, and will always keep it on hand. George has above trade mark and crossed red lines on his label. BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

Taking list of prices for recipes, information about the use of Bitter, and other useful information, or mailed to any address on receipt of 25 cents.

"With these remarks I present these volumes to the public, asking no favors, but hoping they will meet the approval of the reader."

"Mr. McGregor, N. Y.

"July 1, 1883."

Portions of the State Completely Washed Out by Raging Torrents.

PARSONS, Kan., July 8.—Reports from all points indicate the damage by floods very great. The Missouri river has overflowed its banks, and has ever been before. Many farmers who had their wheat cut and in the shock report almost a total loss, while others have lost hogs, sheep and cattle, and in many instances houses and fences have been swept away, the families barely escaping with their lives.

The loss of life has been greater than usual. No attempt has been made by the railroads to get the trains through instant.

Communication is entirely cut off with the east and no mail has been received except from the south since Wednesday.

The Missouri Pacific railroad advertised to run a train east and transfer by boat at Ozone Mission. It will be two or three days before travel is resumed.

Mrs. GOULD'S LAST PURCHASE.

Buying Up Big Mining Interests and Controlling the Coal Trade.

DALLAS, Tex., July 8.—Jay Gould bought off Robert C. Schenck, the builder of the Texas & Pacific railroad, all his mining interests in the Indian territory, including the McAllister mine, from which the coal supply of Texas is mainly derived. It is thought that he will then control fuel so as another opportunity to increase his wealth.

He also bought Gold, Colorado & Santa Fe, owning by Galveston merchants for the control of which he has been making successive efforts.

The railroad filed in the clerk's office for registration a mortgage to the Farmers' Loan and Trust company of New York for $2,144,000 designed to be used in its extension. Its ultimate northern terminus are to be Denver and Kansas City.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Ned Rogler Kills His Sweetheart and Himself.

ARCADIA, Wis., July 8.—Ned Rogler shot Annie Forsch, a girl of fifteen years, who had been paying attention, and afterwards committed suicide.

The girl's parents strongly objected to Rogler as a suitor. The latter finding there was no hope of marrying the girl, delibera-lly proposed to take her life, and his own.

Meeting her in the street, he struck her without a word.

He then coolly picked up the body of his victim, and with the life blood oozing from a bullet hole in the left breast, carried it to the parsonage.

He then took a dozen of shotgun shells and loaded the pistol had had time to take effect shot himself through the temple, dying almost instantly.

The parents of the girl are nearly insane from grief.

Bicyclists' Tour.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 8.—The Big Four bicyclists started from Buffalo on Monday and seven days, started from Buffalo on Monday and seven days.

The organization is composed of wheelmen of New York, Boston, Chicago and Buffalo.

Their destination is New York, which will be reached on July 17, via Canada.

Ready-made, on Hoop and Canopy Frames, very cheap. Everybody is invited to call. We are going to give BARGAINS.

J. W. SPARKS & BRO.

Headquarters for ALL KINDS

BOOKS AND SHOES!

C. S. MINER & BRO.

BOOTS

—AND—

SHOES

Attractive PRICES

In Footwear at

RANSON'S

I WILL OFFER,

during the present month, a fine line of

CARRIAGES

and BUGGIES

at only three-fourths of the true value.

ED. MYALL,

Successors to Myall & Riley, Sutton street, Maysville, Ky.

ROBERT BISSET,

—PRACTICAL—

PLUMBER

Gas and Steam Fitter.

Orders promptly attended to. No. 25 Second street.

Porter, Enis & Deal.

—PRACTICAL—

CARRIAGE BUILDERS

(Formerly with Burrows & Atherton), have just opened a manufacturing establishment on Third street, near market, and are fully prepared to do with promptness and all kinds of NEW CARRIAGE WORK, at prices fully in accordance with the times.

J. BALLENCER

FOR

FINE JEWELRY,

DIAMONDS, WATCHES, ETC.

Bridal and Anniversary Gifts a specialty. A large stock to select from at all times. A trial is solicited and satisfaction guaranteed.

T. LOWRY.

—Dealer in —

GROCERIES,

CIGARS and TOBACCOES,

Tess, Queenware, Glassware, and Novelties.

Highest cash price paid for Country Produce

Corner of Fourth and Main streets.

E. L. TRAYSER,

—Manufacturer of —

PIANOS AND ORGANS.

All Instruments warranted. Pianos tuned and repaired. Front street, Maysville, Ky.

HERMANN LANGE,

—The Jeweler, is receiving the latest styles of—

FINE JEWELRY,

Watches, Diamonds, Silverware, Clocks and Novelties. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. No. 49 Second Street, three doors below Market, Maysville, Ky.

—NOW—

COME and LOOK at the goods we have placed on our Cheap Tables. Seeing is believing; you will never believe it until you see it.

HECHINGER & CO.,

Leading Clothiers and Merchant Tailors, Oddfellows' Hall.

WALL PAPER!

For Beautiful designs my stock of Wall Paper is complete. Also BOOKS, STATIONERY, FANCY GOODS, GOLD PENS, PICTURE FRAMES, &c. We will take pleasure in showing our stock to all. —PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY in the same building.

J. T. KACKLEY,

MAYSVILLE, KY.

WONDERFUL

People who won't buy Clothing and people who don't want to buy Clothing are the very people who will buy Clothing when they see the astonishing low prices quoted at the

'Red Corner' Clothing Store.

Come early and tell your friends.

LOUIS ZECH, "Red Corner."

GO TO

J. BALLENCER

FOR

FINE JEWELRY,

DIAMONDS, WATCHES, ETC.

—Dealer in —

GROCERIES,

CIGARS and TOBACCOES,

Tess, Queenware, Glassware, and Novelties.

Highest cash price paid for Country Produce

Corner of Fourth and Main streets.

F. L. TRAYSER,

—Manufacturer of —

PIANOS AND ORGANS.

All Instruments warranted. Pianos tuned and repaired. Front street, Maysville, Ky.